

From: Brad Ferguson [brad@hffinancial.com]

Sent: 8/28/2024, 7:10 AM

To: bead@ntia.gov

Subject: lowest cost, high throughput

Starlink is the dominant solution for rural Internet. I have two Starlinks and they work great. They are also small, require no digging, and very easy to set up.

Starlink delivers 100/20 Mbps and latency less than 100 ms 99.9% of the time.

For your legacy, you must add them back to the program. To do otherwise is disgraceful.

Sent from my iPhone